Dear Sir William

My brother & I beg that you will accept our thanks for your very kind letter which is highly appreciated by us.
The possession of the book will be a source of great enjoyment & pride to us & we will ever treasure it as a token of a friendship we feel it an honor to claim.

great-pleasure to the too few days of your visit to Boston.
We beg that our very kindest-remembrances may be made to Lady Dawson & Miss Eva & with most-grateful thanks from my brother & myself I am dear Sir William

Sincerely Yours
Hugh Campbell.

So often in our correspondence, by + conversation with people by from various parts of this country. See Your name + writings are (the mentioned in admiring terms by e.g. last week by a distinguished officer now a lawyer in Louisville Kentucky + a few weeks since our cousin wrote from her brother's estate in Virginia alluding to a certain thought regarding Jerusalem + again a prominent lawyer of St. Louis, Missouri in a conversation on education &c.

We are still here in the same pleasant country home but my brother having completed his course of study & received his diploma from the Law School of Harvard University (he is a graduate of Yale University) the object of our sojourn has been accomplished & now the house is filled with men packing our effects for a voyage across the Atlantic to sail next month for Europe to be absent some years.

On Wednesday I start for a brief visit to St. Louis taking home the horses & such carriages as we have in America.
We will not soon forget Lady Dawson's many kindnesses to us & look back with
