Montreal, 9th Oct 1888

My dear Mr Mann

The intelligence in your note of today of the continued illness of Robert Payne I am very sorry to hear.

It is gratifying to have this assurance from you that with the exception of two gentlemen the Professors and Lecturers concerned in the Classes are cordially will affect toward and fully appreciate the value of the method now pursued

Believe me
Sincerely yours
Doubtless yours

Det Smith
