My Dear Sir.

The "Witness" asks $24³⁰/₁₀₀ for printing 1000 Copies, 12 pp.

John Lovell & Son, ask $15⁰⁰/₁₀₀ for printing the same.

The "Witness" asks $12⁰⁰/₁₀₀ for engraving the block for the heading.

John Lovell & Son, ask about $6⁰⁰/₁₀₀ or $7⁰⁰/₁₀₀ for same.

There can be scarcely two opinions, therefore, as to which we should accept, and I will act accordingly.

Lovell & Son will make a sketch of the heading, and send it up for approval. When it comes I will forward it to you, in the meantime

Copy of Minutes of City

The "Minutes" were $12.00 for printing 100 copies 12 pgs.
 John Lovell & Son, ask $12.00 for printing the same.
 The "Minutes" were $12.00 for engraving the book for the printing.
 John Lovell & Son ask about $12.00
 for the same.
 There can be no objection to the charges, as the work is already done.
 and I will not object.
 Lovell & Son will make a list of the printing and send it up for approval. When it comes I will forward it to you, in the meantime

I will complete the M. S. and get it into type.

Which of the following passages would you prefer for the motto? —

Heb 4.12, "For the word of God is quick and powerful."

Is 107.20 "He send his word and healed them."
