My dear Sir William

I am venturing to ask the Council of the British Association to dine with me to meet the President Club. I fear it may be a mere idle form to send an invitation to you, living as you do at Montreal, but in these days of frequent voyages, & with the Paris Stipulation under way, it is possible, by good fortune, you may be in England; & if so I should indeed esteem myself fortunate to see you taking your place among the other Part Presidents.

Believe me to be yours very truly
Frederick Bramwell
