

June 1888

Brooklyn College
Library

McKensie

Dear Sir

Thank you for your

of my answer thanks for your generous gift I shall prize the book in account of the important subject with which it deals, and also for the kind of its distinguished author. May I be allowed of my better acquaintance and myself than on interest in your papers. We are interested in your and purified passages to preserve the original to very nature. We are enveloped in the spirit of the work of the purpose of the showing passages, and the very promise of your work. We expect to be sustained also of the papers of your efforts in Canada and elsewhere. May that through the efforts of the many of their's abilities may be able to see, known has been on their terms and book.

I remain in with great respect, Yours for
Chas. McKensie

Presbyterian College.
Montreal.

26th June 1889.

To Sir J. W. Dawson.

Honoured Sir.

Please accept of my sincere thanks for your handsome gift.
I shall prize the book on account of the important subject with which it deals, and also for the sake of its distinguished Author. May I on behalf of my brother Missionaries and myself claim an interest in your prayers? We are commanded by our risen and glorified Redeemer to "preach the Gospel to every creature." We are encouraged in the doing of this work by the promise of His abiding Presence, and the many promises of God's Word. We expect to be sustained also by the prayers of God's people in Canada and elsewhere. Pray that through the efforts put forth many of "China's Millions" may be led to see, know and love Jesus as their Saviour and Lord.

I remain Sir, with great respect, yours for missions,

Murdock MacKenzie.