Yours very truly,
Sir,
Your convenience,

It would be a favor to have the favor of a reply from you of magazine articles, with names of mag. and date, in each instance. Also a list of your more important written or edited by you, with date, price and publisher if you would favor me with a list of books and pamphlets like to publish a complete bibliography of your writings photograph of yourself by return mail. I would also ask yours to the collection, by sending me a cabinet card which would be very glad if you would allow me to make a collection of your letters of connection to be made by you. Also if you would allow me to collect your side in the new volume I have under your supervision, nevertheless I take the liberty of writing you.

Sincerely
L. P. S.

Dear Sir -- I have not the honor of your personal acquaintance,

Sir J W Dawson

Montreal,

Dear Sir -- I have not the honor of your personal acquaintance, nevertheless I take the liberty of soliciting your aid in the new venture I have undertaken to edit.

I am making a collection of portraits of Canadian writers, and would be very glad if you would allow me to add yours to the collection, by sending me a cabinet photograph of yourself by return mail. I would also like to publish a complete bibliography of your writings if you would favor me with a list of books and pamphlets written or edited by you, with size, price and publisher in each instance. Also a list of your more important magazine articles, with name of mag, and date.

Trusting to have the favor of a reply from you at your convenience,

I have the honor to remain, Sir,

Yours very truly,

Richard T. Lanefield
