Sept 24

Dear Sir,
I have the pleasure to inform you that the order for the purchase of the land will be made in the month of September. I have been in communication with the proper authorities and will be able to advise you of the result in due season.
I am, Sir, very respectfully, Your obedient servant,
J. J. Taylor

Sir

I am very much pleased to hear of the result of your negotiations and I am,

Sir,
very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,

circumstance it is my very humble desire that you will be generous ^{enough} to overlook my absence from your appointment.
The rust will be over by the end of this week and I shall consider it an honor if you will condescend to make another appointment. I humbly request your further command

Sir

your very humble
& obedient servant

Sir J. W. Dawson
Principal McGill College
Sir
Mr Drysdale has told me that you have appointed the September 4th next day I should wait on you. Very humbly I implore your pardon for my having not kept your appointment.
We have been exceedingly busy in the store last few days on account of the openings of different schools, and it was practically impossible for me to ask my employer leave to go out. Under the
