Montreal, 26th Apr 1889

Dear Sir Pittman

I find at the last moment that I cannot avoid leaving for New York this afternoon, and now write to express to you that I cannot come to you this today or perhaps at the meeting of Governors tomorrow.
My intention is to be back if possible on Saturday morning but evening steamer may prevent me being here before Sunday morning.
Owing to the distance only for a

Some papers on to take up the dubies which were allowed to be On late Mr P. S. Stovossee in connection with the New Brunswick Railway Junction in S. Thom's on Thursday next week for the amount of $1000 of that Company.
I shall be glad however to arrange for some of you either at your house or here anytime in the afternoon of Monday or Tuesday which may be more convenient for you. If you I shall be glad to use before in the position to which the Government proposes to give enough to appoint one my truly yours
Wm. Dawson
