CONDITIONS.

Goods are shipped and received subject to the following con-

86 consignee is not on hand to receive the goods, package by package, discharged, then the master may deliver them to the wharfinger or other party or person believed by said master to be responsible, and who will take charge of said goods and pay the freight on the same, or deposit them on the bank of the river, or other usual place for delivering goods. The responsibility of said master shall cease immediately on the delivery of the said goods from the ship's tackles.

The steamer on which the within goods are carried shall have leave to tow and assist vessels; to sail with or without pilots; to tranship to any other steamer or steamers; to lighter from steamer to steamer, or from steamer to shore; to deliver to other steamers, companies, persons, or forwarding agents any of the within goods destined for ports or places at which the vessel on which they are carried does not call. The master and owners shall not be held responsible for any damage or loss resulting from fire at sea, in the river, or in port; accident to or from machinery, boilers or steam, or any other accident or dangers of the seas, rivers, roadsteads, harbors, or of sail or steam navigation of what nature or kind soever.

It is expressly understood that the master and owners shall not be liable or accountable for weight, leakage, breakage, shrinkage, rust loss or damage arising from insecurity of package, or damage to cargo by vermin, burning or explosion of articles or freight or otherwise, or loss or damage on account of inaccuracy or omissions in marks or descriptions, effects of climate, or from unavoidable detention or delay, nor for the loss of specie, bullion, bank notes, government notes, bonds or consols, jewelry, or any property of special value, unless shipped under proper title or name and extra freight paid thereon.

Live stock, trees, shrubbery, and all kinds of perishable property at owner's risk. Oils and all other liquids at owner's risk of leakage, unless caused by improper stowage.

It is hereby understood that wool in bales, dry hides, butter and egg boxes, and all other packages, must be, each and every package, marked with the full address of the consignee; and if not so marked it is agreed that the delivery of the full number of packages as within mentioned, without regard to quality, shall be deemed a correct delivery, and in full satisfaction of this receipt.

It is agreed that in settlement of any claim for loss of or damage to any of the within mentioned goods, said claim shall be restricted to the cash value of such goods at the port of shipment at the date of shipment.

It is agreed that the person or party delivering any goods to the said steamer for shipment is authorized to sign the shipping receipt for the shipper.

On delivery of the goods within enumerated, as provided herein, this receipt shall stand cancelled, whether surrendered or not.

In consideration of the goods being carried by the Company at a reduced rate, it is expressly agreed and declared that the shipper waives and abandons any right accorded by Statute or otherwise, to hold the Company responsible in any manner for the keeping, or safe, or prompt carriage of the goods, and waives and abandons all advantage and benefit accorded by the Statute 37 Vict. C. 25, to the shipper, and himself accepts all responsibility for the safe keeping and carriage of the goods, and agrees to hold the Company absolved and discharged from delays, damages, or losses from whatever cause arising, including delays, loss or damage arising through negligence or carelessness, or want of skill of the Company's officers, servants or workmen, but which shall have occurred without the actual fault or privity of the Company.

It is expressly agreed that all claim against the said steamer or her owners for damage to or loss of any of the within merchandise must be presented to the master or owners thereof within six months from date hereof; and that after six months from date hereof no action, suit or proceeding in any court of justice shall be brought against the said steamer or the owners thereof for any damage to or loss of said merchandise; and the lapse of said six months shall be deemed a conclusive bar and release of all right to recover against the said steamer or the owners thereof for any such damage or loss.

THE BIBLE AND MODERN DISCOVERIES.

THIS work, written by a Member of the Executive Committee of the Palestine Exploration Fund, is an endeavour to present in a simple and popular, but yet a connected form the Biblical results of twenty-two years' work of the Palestine Exploration Fund. The writer has also availed himself of the discoveries made by the American Expeditions and the Egyptian Exploration Fund, as well as discoveries of interest made by independent travellers.

The Bible story, from the call of Abraham to the Captivity, is taken, and details given of the light thrown by modern research on the sacred annals. Eastern customs and modes of thought are explained whenever the writer thought they illustrated the text. This plain and simple method has never before been adopted in dealing with modern discovery.

To the Clergy and Sunday School Teachers, as well as to all those who love the Bible, the writer hopes this work will prove useful. He is personally acquainted with the land: nearly all the places spoken of he has visited, and most of them he has moreover sketched or painted.

The work will be issued in one large, handsome volume of 600 pages. It will be illustrated with a map and many plates. Price to the public, 16s. ; to subscribers, 10s. 6d., carriage included.
