Hudson's Bay House,

Montreal,

4th March 1880

Dear Mr. Mann

The man truly referred to in your letter of yesterday is to whom a definite understanding can be arrived at regarding the acquisition of the Dominion property is essential and of great importance and yet some hours of the time has elapsed since the death of Mr Wickman from whom Mr. H. G. L. has derived the right to the acquisition of the house it is hardly likely that the husband will care to make much ado about them Our friends in and the result we are at any rate, so our appearance and so on

The members of the Doucetta Class under Miss Pampinny and are with no doubt be interesting but unfortunately have to leave for Ottawa today & can not be present

Yours truly
Doubtless
