Dear Mr. Mian

Your note of the 22nd
I am greatly obliged to you for.
The suggestions you are good enough to make will have only a partial attention and that I hope soon, but just now, besides having much pressing work to attend to, I am more than usually out of health and must defer the consideration of all these matters for a little while.

Wm. A. L. H. G. and S.

Believe me

Very yours

Wm. A. L. H. G. and S.
