Dear Sir
I had not been that the Deluge which had been reprinted. In that case I could refer to it and deal ^{with} ~~not interested~~ ^{in it} The other points ~~which~~ ~~I think I can~~ ~~obtain~~ ~~the~~ ~~useful light on~~ I shall therefore endeavor to use an article as you suggest and ^{had better} ~~best~~ do so here in the vacation as I can have no contact of mine at home. In ^{the article} ~~it~~ will be ready as farthest early in September. A. H.

Remuneration shall be ~~that in your hands and~~ shall be content with your usual rate to Contributors and a few extra copies of the sheets containing the articles.

Your kind letter reaches me at this place and I reply at the earliest moment.

I have read among Hurley's paper which appears to me scarcely worthy of being being full of unproved assertions and is ~~impossible~~ possible only in its denunciations of certain clerical schools, whom I do not feel called on to defend, but which ^{might be done} should not be mixed up with questions of the authority of revelation.

It occurs to me that unless your journal says it might be well to reprint with Hurley's paper my article ^{on the Decree and its character} in the ~~interim~~ Review Dec 1889 which treats of the same subject and of you think well to do this I can of course with the consent of the pub. whom and desire and annotate the article so as to make it bear deposits on the points raised by Hurley If you think well of this please inform me and I shall attend to the matter at once.
