

Alfred Russel
Wallace

London Dec 13 1880
R.C.

To Sir Wm. Brewster,
Sir,
By Mr. Brewster's directions, I am sending you this note, as a return for your note, published in the Journal of the American Ornithologists Union is at present very much pressed with work, and he would be greatly obliged if you will kindly look the proof over, and send it back to return of proof to him, as the stock is running out.
I am, Sir,
Yours very truly,
A. R. Wallace

The Religious Tract Society, 56, Paternoster Row,

London Dec 18 1890
E. C.

To Sir Wm. Dawson,
Sir,

By Mr. Lovell's directions, I am sending by this mail, a Review of your work, Evolution. Mr. Lovell
is at present very much pressed
with work, and he would be greatly
obliged if you will kindly
look the proof over, and send it back by return of post to him, as the stock is running
out.

I am, Sir,

Yours respectfully

J. Evans
2

P. S. — In reply to your note of Dec 2, Mr. Lovell desires me to say that when the application to translate "Evolution reaches him", he will be delighted to all he can forward it.