

Printed and Published by

WATSON & SCOTT

10, BROADWAY, LONDON.

AD. 10/6

10/6

LONDON.

Printed and Published by

Wm. Fox Talbot
June 1839

My dear Sir
I have the pleasure to inform you that the first volume of the "Pencil Sketches" is now ready for publication. It contains a selection of the most interesting and beautiful sketches which
I have been enabled to make
during my travels in France
and Italy. The volume is bound in the most elegant manner, and is sold at the price of 10s. 6d. per volume.
I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
Wm. Fox Talbot

POST OFFICE
GENERAL DELIVERY
NO. 117

My dear Sir
I have the pleasure to inform you that the first volume of the "Pencil Sketches" is now ready for publication. It contains a selection of the most interesting
and beautiful sketches which
I have been enabled to make
during my travels in France
and Italy. The volume is bound in the most elegant
manner, and is sold at the price of 10s. 6d. per volume.
I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
Wm. Fox Talbot

London 1839
The Pencil Sketches
Vol. I. Part I.
10s. 6d.

SHIPPING AGENTS

WATSON & SCULL,

90, LOWER

THAMES ST.,

LONDON.

Horticultural and General

To all Parts of the World.

SPECIAL CARE GIVEN TO PLANTS, SEEDS, AND BOTANICAL SPECIMENS.

LONDON, 24 May 1892

The Rt Honble
Sir Wm Dawson.
Montreal
Canada.

Dear Sir,

We have the pleasure to enclose you Bill of Lading for one case containing a large Toden fern received from Sir Ferdinand Baron von Mueller of Melbourne, shipped to you per steamer, 'European' for your city. Freight paid, which we trust will reach safely. We take this opportunity of tendering you our services for the transportation of any goods you may be ordering from Europe & assure you of our prompt attention.

We remain
Dear Sir,

Yours truly

Watson Scull

McGILL UNIVERSITY
ARCHIVES
ACC. NO. 1463
REF. 123