My dear Dr William Dawson

Though very late in expressing my heart felt sympathy in Lady Dawson's illness first and then yours, I have often thought of you and would have called at your door if I had not been aid by more intimate friends than I can presume to be how you were progressing.

I am very happy to learn that you are now well enough to contemplate a trip to more quial claims for the winter.

Many are those who will be sorry to lose your presence for a time, but they all hope and pray that this change will benefit you and Lady Dawson so much that you will return to us with renewed powers to continue to labor here and to form other laborers for the great battle of life, and as far as we may for the cause of truth, righteousness and Christian life

With sincere and affectionate Christian regards

I remain truly yours

Theodore Lafleur.
