Dear Sir William Dawson

Miss Shaw brought me your letter of introduction.
She dined with us, and I had a very pleasant talk with her. He seems to be investigating colonial questions regarding them, if I rightly interpreted what he said, rather from the Imperial Federationist point of view.
He is evidently a lady of superior mind and high celebration.

The papers say you positively that you are about to retire from the Municipal Trust of McGill. We are all gladly old, and old age requires repose. Your repose has been earned by a career of usefulness on which you will look back with unmixed satisfaction from the arm chair of old age.
May you long enjoy the retrospect!

Yours very truly,

Edwin Smith.
