Dear Sir William Dawson

I send the first correct proof I can
of Mr Vpham's coming paper, and need

not say how greatly the Council will value

any comments you

may make thereon.

The Meeting at which

Professor Prentiss
paper was read was a very good one filling the Society of Arts Hall
The speakers were good and all were gratified it was our first attempt to hold the hall for four meetings and a most satisfactory one

Very present my compliments to Lady Dawson and

Believe me

Your most obed^t Serv^t

John Tree
