My dear Sir William

Please accept
my best thanks for your most kind letter & your office on behalf of Mr. Robertson of Venice:
you have helped to secure a worthy man.
I think those "holding the fort" in large cities

on the Continent do
an important work,
in helping to make
it untrue of our countrymen & women that (as the cynic observed)
they drop their religion in the channel & often forget to pick it up again.

Miss Pappian was delighted to receive Lady Dawson's letter - she suddenly returned to London to take medical advice. I think she has got through the winter pretty well. I look well.

With kind remembrances to Lady Dawson

Yrs very sincerely
Thos Ward
