AND LONDON, ENG.

Dear Sir William

I am favoured with your letter enclosing our firm's Cleveland of Richmond.

I will bring the matter before Mr Drummond & any others likely.
I will keep her letter for a few days as Mr Drummond is at present out of town.

I saw Craig. The reason of the delay was that Lady Dawson calls "Gus" but he is very sick just now, so Craig will not wait longer but send another man.

I also saw Willoy & he was to go up too. We have also written twice to the mason. and with regard to the Carpenter, the men are still on strike, but I hope it will soon be settled.

Very Truly Yours
A. J. Taylor
