

293. University St.
Montreal.

June 12/94

My dear Sir,

I beg, through

you, to thank very

sincerely the Senate of the University of Quebec for its kind invitation, and more especially for the opportunity offered to take part in doing honour

to the memory of my dear friend Sir Daniel

higher education throughout the Dominion

With all kind regards I remain

Yours sincerely

J. M. Dawson

am sure no man more deserves to be held in grateful remembrance by your University and by all Canadians. I regret, however that in my present circumstances
it will be impossible to undertake a journey to Toronto, I must therefore be content to deny myself this pleasure, and to wish that the ac-casion may prove one of pleasure to all the members of your movement, and may add lustre to its reputation, and be a source of stimulus and encouragement to all the friends of
