Sir J. W. Dawson.

Dear Sir William.

It is with feelings of deep gratitude, and heartfelt thanks, that I enclose, and return to you, the sum of money you so kindly loaned to me, in the fall of '89.

Since then, ways and doors have been thrown open, for me to earn my way thus far, in my college career. Kind friends have lent a helping hand and today I am in a position to refund to you the sum, you so kindly loaned.

I have been engaged in the branch mission of Arckine Church, during the past year. There in Maisonneuve, my labors have been owned and blessed. With the favor of Heaven I look forward to my days in the Ministers Service.

May He, who favored you with health and strength, to go in and out - once more among us, still give you His richest favor, and reward you as your kindness deserves. This is the prayer of your humble servant -

Wm Mac Craig. Student.
