

Morning-side.
Gibbs Avenue.
Newport.

Dear Mr William

That you remembered
my wish to learn
the address of the daughter of Dr. Robertson was somewhat of a surprise to me &
your exceedingly kind
letter gives me an added cause for gratitude. I shall now write to me of 1812-1813

1814-1815
1816-1817

The ladies, whose address you have given me, in regard to the possible recovery of my father's letters.

I regret that you must speak of the
lassitude of age &
infirmity so little to be observed when I had the pleasure of meeting you in Boston & trust that the very unusual heat of the last summer may be a temporary cause for this.

Will you express my kind remembrances to Lady Dawson & the hope that I may some day
have the pleasure of again meeting her

Mrs Rogers
Oct 19/94

& with renewed thanks
for your kindness
believe me most
Sincerely yours
Emma Rogers.

October twentieth 1894.
