Dear Mr. Millean

It is very kind of you to remember us; my wife & I send you & Lady Dawson many good wishes.

I have decided to go on with Lamb's paper, as others beside yourself have shown me its value as the last of a Jones. I expect to publish yours also. But it is not yet in hand. If you prefer it, you might get it from the Gazette office, & make the corrections at once, to save time. Return it to the Gazette

The bibliography is in hand,
& the mass nearly complete.

Yours sincerely,
J. Geo. Bourne
