Dear Sir,

Your letter of 17th inst. was used here on the 27th, but no proof was enclosed. Perhaps it was sent separately by book-post and may arrive later. But if any omission has occurred in sending it, kindly attend to the matter.

Erratum on DeLuge tract - Page 6 line 7, from bottom, for "its absence," read "the absence"
Truly yours,
J. M. Dawson.
