My dear Mr. Williams:

Your letter has been forwarded while here, when I am having my annual vacation. I am sorry that my absence has delayed, but I hope it will not prevent my seeing you. We go back to Cambridge in morning next.

It will give us all great pleasure to welcome Dr. Houghton to this part of the world. I shall be most happy to do anything to further his interests provided that a place would be board for him in Boston or Cambridge: his presence would be most welcome.

Please accept my warmest and your wife my own & Mrs. Baker's compliments & believe me

Truly yours
