MAIDA HILL, W.

Dear Sir,

I beg to thank you most sincerely for your interesting and most suggestive work "Edeu lost and won," which you have been so kind as to cause to be sent to me. I have now read most of the chapters, and I intend to read them again, for your point of view is one that is exceedingly attractive.

I am much obliged to you also for the mention of my name in connection with Chedorlaomer and his allies. I trust that Captain Petrie has sent you a copy of my paper upon the texts referring to that ancient conqueror.

Again thanking you, I am

Yours very truly

Theophilus G. Fiches.
