

MEMORANDUM

From Hodder & Stoughton,
27, Paternoster Row,

To
Sir William Dawson
London, 31 Mch 1896
E.C.

My dear Sir William

I have pleasure in sending you another budget of notices of "Eden Cost & Won". There are some thoroughly Evangelical quarters where the book is favourably noticed, but I am sorry to find that in literary channels, it is cut up. Unfortunately notices in the former, do little to promote sale, so that I cannot report that the book is selling well, but we will hope on.

I understand the American Edition is now ready & I hope will be well received in the States.

Believe me
Yours very sincerely
W. H. Hodder
