Dear Sir

I am engaged in editing a new Dictionary of the Bible,
to be pub^d by Messrs T & T Clark in four volumes. Among the writers engaged on it
are Professors Sanday, Davidson, Ramsay,
Sayce, &c., & in America

Professors Warfield,
Thayer, McCurdy, &c.
Sir Charles Wilson,
Sir Charles Warren, Col.
Conder & others will write the geography.

The article Man is to be written in three parts -

1. A survey of the Heb. and Greek words so translated.
This will be done by Prof. Adeney of London.
2. The Anthropology and Psychology of Man. This by Professor Laidlaw of Edinburgh.

3. The Origin and Antiquity of Man.

Would you care to write this last article? I should like to make you the first offer of it, and it wd give me great pleasure if you found it in your power to undertake it. In a Dictionary of the Bible
it wd be the biblical doctrine that w^d be looked for; but I sh^d ~~not~~ give you freedom

as to treatment & length.
Kindly tell me if you
c^d undertake it, what length ^{in words}, you w^d like to go to, and if you c^{ld} have it ready by the end of this year.

Yours most sincerely
J. Hastings
