Principal Dawson proposes, as occasion of the 25th Session of his connection with the University, to invite every graduate whose address can be ascertained to a social reunion & University banquet, to be held on the evening of the 2d of April in the William Molson Hall; and to which Professors, Fellows, Professors and Benefactors will also be invited. The entertainment will be strictly private & no newspaper reports. In addition to a pleasant social gathering, he has in view to invite the graduates with other friends & members of the University in the premises of the following objects:— 1/1 the annual social gathering of the Members of the Union, in connection with the erection of a Lecture Hall for this and other Union meetings.

(2) The provision of a fund to endow the Principalship, and to accumulate till a vacancy occurs.

The approval and continuance of the graduates society is solicited for these purposes, with the understanding that their furtherance shall be used more agreeably to the Principal than any personal tribute.
