ATTENDANCE AND CONDUCT.

1. Attendance upon all the Classes of the Faculty shall be imperative equally, except upon those announced by the Faculty as optional.

2. A Class-book shall be kept by each Professor and Lecturer, in which the presence or absence of Students shall be carefully noted; and the said Class-books shall be submitted to the Faculty at all the ordinary meetings during the Session.

Punctual attendance on all the classes proper to his year is required of each Student. Professors will note the attendance immediately on the commencement of their lectures, and will omit the names of students entering thereafter, unless satisfactory reasons are assigned. Absence or tardiness without sufficient excuse, if persisted in after admonition by the Professor, will be reported to the Principal or Dean of Faculty, who may reprimand the student, report to his parents or guardians, or report to the Faculty, as he may decide. While in the College building, or going to or from it, students are expected to conduct themselves in the same orderly manner as in the class-rooms. Any Professor observing improper conduct in the class-room, or elsewhere in the building, will admonish the student, and if necessary report him to the Principal or Dean.

When students are reported to the Faculty under the above rules, the Faculty may reprimand, report to parents or guardians, disqualify from competing for prizes and honors, suspend from classes, or report to the Corporation for expulsion.

Injuries to the furniture or building will be repaired at the expense of those by whom they have been caused.

3. The proportion of times of absence, from necessity or duty, that shall disqualify for the keeping of a Session, shall in each case be determined by the Faculty.

LIBRARY.

1. Students may receive books from the Library, on depositing the sum of Six Dollars with the Librarian, and signing a receipt for the books received. Books of reference and works containing valuable illustrations, may not be removed from the Library.

2. Students may receive only two volumes at one time, and must return them within two weeks, on penalty of a fine of 1s. for each additional week.

3. Any volume or volumes lost or damaged by a student shall be paid for by him at such rate as the Faculty may direct, having reference to the value of the book and of the set to which it may belong.

4. Students may consult books in the Library at such hours as may be determined by the Faculty.

5. Professors and Lecturers may receive from the Librarian any books required by them for their duties in the College, not exceeding ten volumes at any one time. Books so borrowed must be returned at or before the close of each Session.

6. Persons not connected with the College may consult books in the Library, on obtaining an order to that effect from any of the Governors or Professors; and Donors of books or money to the amount of Fifty Dollars, may at any time consult books, on application to the Librarian.

3. Students may receive only two volumes at one time and must return them within two weeks on penalty of a fine of $1.00 for each additional week.

4. Any volume or volume lost or damaged by a student shall be paid for by him at such rate as the Faculty may direct, having reference to the value of the book and of the set to which it may belong.

5. Students may consult books in the Library at such hours as may be determined by the Faculty.

6. Professors and lecturers may receive from the Librarian any books required by them for their duties in the College, not exceeding ten volumes at any one time. Books so borrowed must be returned at or before the close of each Session.

7. Persons not connected with the College may consult books in the Library, on obtaining an order to that effect from any of the Professors or Professors and Doctors of books or money to the amount of Fifty Dollars, for at any time twenty books, on application to the Librarian.
