

THE SUNDAY AT HOME.

56, PATERNOSTER ROW, E.C.

London, Sept 15, 1896.

Prehistoric Man.

My dear Sir,
Please send

the papers when it
suits you best, after your return to Canada.
A month earlier or later does not much
matter with such a subject.

You will understand
that we wish the copy for the "Sunday at Home".

as relating to subjects of deep interest, but it is wisest to avoid the controversial tone, & leave the basis of fact to take its natural place in Christian
thought.

The tendencies
of the time here are all towards brevity.
It will be expedient
therefore to limit
each paper to three or four pages;

think these papers would cover as much ground as we can safely give.

With many thanks,
I am yours faithfully,
William Stevens.

to W. Dawson

The enclosed is the last on the subject of man - his time -
that I have observed.
