Dear Sir William,

I am extremely sorry that I missed the pleasure of seeing you when in London.

I understand from my clerk, that the Royalty matter has been put right. All books sold by the Revell Co. we pay half the English royalty upon, & you will find that you have, in every case, received the sum due.

I am sorry to say that we have no evidence that any of their sales of books are considerable.

Trusting you keep
well, & with kind regards,

Yours very sincerely
