

My dear Sir William

I think you will feel gratified to hear that Mr. Ingham has thought of you to-day, & wished he was well
that he might call upon you & your good wife & offer his congra-tulations. He has spoken of you several times & wanted to know all about the golden wedding

an interesting event that but few are permitted to enjoy.

I want to thank you for your very kind
note received yesterday, & for the kind wishes
therein expressed.

Mr. Ingham has had a quiet day, not sleeping much, but showing more interest in things around him than he did a week ago.

The Dr says his condition is certainly better than a week ago.

Hopes & fears alternate but I must trust —

With kind regards, &
love to Lady Dawson

I am, dear yours

Very sincerely
Louisa G. H. Rolson
