

William
May 1997

London 20 May 97.

Dear Sir William

I have looked very carefully over all the old papers in my possession belonging to the Duke of Devon but can find nothing relating to Sir William's last work in the Eastern Townships.
Mr Simard tells me that Sir William took home with him some papers and that after his death the late Mr Grant sent home to

to his relations a lot of papers. Mr Simard does not think any papers were returned to Canada after Sir Wilfrid's death.
The conclusion is that these papers are either in traces or in the possession of Alex Stewart.

Yours very truly
Wm. D. Williams
