Dear Sir William

I have received the Photographs. Many thanks to you and Lady Dawson for your kindness in sending them. It is such a pleasure to me to look at them and think of past days. do not think that I am flattery you, when I say that friends agree with me that they are beautiful Photographs. Before receiving yours I had sent my photo. which I trust you have got ere this

Our City is just recovering from the excitement of the Jubilee. My shores
in its pleasures need assisting in distributing food to the poor. our Ladies Benevolent Society were asked to help in this work there are
a great many poor
in this city and from my experience in working among them. I think that drink is one of causes of so much poverty.
We are having Evangelistic meetings in our Presbyterian churches. And I trust that these meetings
may be greatly blessed to us all, for we are very cold and there is great need of a revival. Among us, we are blessed with a very able and earnest minister but I fear that we have not profited as we should have done by his preaching

And now with love and kind regards to Lady Dawson and
yourself I am
Yours very sincerely
