My dear Sir William

One line to thank you for kindly sending, some little time ago, a copy of your pamphlet on "Creative Development & Evolution".

Apart from the advantage of possessing such writings, (especially as the gift of

(the author) I need hardly apure you that I appreciate your thoughtfulness on this,
as on many previous occasions, when you have read me your works.

With our kind regards

I remain

Very sincerely yours
