

THE LEISURE HOUR,

56, PATERNOSTER ROW,

London, E.C. May 20 1898

My dear Sir

Herewith is the S.H. containing the first of your most interesting papers on Prehistoric Man.

I must apologise
for this long delay.
From month to month
I have hoped that the way ~~to~~ might clear for the series, but there has been a most

and know as overlapping of historical subjects to which we were pledged;
it is so easy to

set out of the popular
reach by giving us
books of such papers.

I hope you will forgive our seeming neglect.

I am sure
the papers will be read with much interest. They have a timely bearing on current questions -

I believe shall freely follow. We propose, of course, to leave the copyright
the papers with
you. It is republication if you think fit.

I am, dear
Sir, yours truly
William Stowe

Sir. W. Dawson, S.C.D., F.R.S.

11 Sunday at Home
Leisure Hours
Lecture.
