Dear Mr. Williams

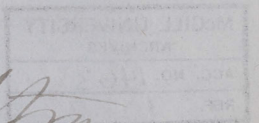

I did not wish to trouble you with revising the text set from printed copy - That I have carefully read and corrected the few typographical errors I met with. I asked Winters to send proof of your own writing as there you might wish to make corrections - The whole thing was to be completed this week -

We send 1 doz Stories - Excellent ones

Have none of the other things.

Light for Last Days is in cloth binding Laid down from London would cost 2.00 could have it here in four weeks - Might be able to get it in Toronto, but cannot say the cost.

I am glad to hear that you feel stronger. We are in His hand
