Dear Sir William Dawson,

I was so very sorry that I was unable to call to bid you farewell
and thank you
personally for your great kindness to
me. But all yesterday

I was feeling very far from well
suffering from neuritis &c.

Pray accept my warmest thanks
for your kindness & hospitality, and your ready help in what was really a great difficulty.

I shall value the book you gave me
greatly.

I hope I did not leave the impression on your mind that I am a disciple of the New Theology
which tones down
all the emphatic
warnings of Scripture.

In the main I agreed with all

you said. I can by confess to a hope (which) do not mean) that God
the Father of heaven
will make something of this ruined souls

Believe me;

Yours sincerely

Wm. L. Johnson
