

108 Mansfield Street
Montreal.

Tuesday Evening

Dear D<sup>r</sup> Dawson,

My neighbour the Rev<sup>d</sup> W<sup>r</sup> Black called on me today to enquire whether we could bring Professor A. M. Vell's Literary Evenings under the notice of our classes at the Nat. Hist. Rooms. He had enquired of W<sup>r</sup> Cornish who appeared quite willing but referred him to me.

Of course I have no personal objection but I shall be much obliged if you will advise me on the subject.

With kind regards

Believe me
Yours faithfully
Lucy Simpson

