

Part 28, 1st copy A

The program for a higher education Christian Ministry has been held since the precedent reformation as a necessary work all the time continued candidates and has been provided for accordingly, it has also been considered that any the calling is not one tending to wealth but rather to comparative poverty & sacrifice. and as God has shown the way that in fact and of less in talents as well. it is also necessary to furnish the means of arduous discerning candidates for the great work whether at home or in the foreign field in their efforts to obtain the needed training. Hence to all provident countries known to me & any persons and while my main purpose accredited can obtain & and especially in great Britain the United States and the Government Britain any persons and all program desire to enter the Christian Ministry.

is hindered <sup>B</sup> <sup>Severe</sup> with the educational founders required to am <sup>sum</sup> for us with more experience in the preparation of Holy Scripture ~~and in the Science of Theology~~ as well as with Theological Training, but while as already noted the struggle and scattered character of the Protestants in the Power of Quebec calls for even greater attention in this important work. All free has been thus far unable to afford it in any adequate degree. This spread should now be taken away and of like the wealth and liberal needs of education and religion also have already done so much in the interest of their Countrymen will be prepared to respond to the appeals of our Theologians Colleges and to enroll them either directly or with the money to give a sufficient number of free lectures and many ends to place us on a level with our neighboring in the United States where we find that any Theological student 8.

That "any student who needs or merits help is can have from $200 to $300 in application." Since advantages are offered to Polytechnic students at Princeton and to Congressmen and other students at Yale. We sometimes object to have our students bought off by these advantages; but we should rather consider these of smaller value offered here, where we may just mean that we need a greater.

YALE UNIVERSITY
 ARCHIVES
 ACC. NO. 1004 1/2
 REF. 1

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mirrored and difficult to decipher but appears to contain several lines of cursive script.

McGILL UNIVERSITY
ARCHIVES
ACC. NO. 909A 115
REF. 9