Dear Papa.

Last-Thursday I dined with Dr Bishy & afterwards went with him to a meeting of the Geographical Socy. It was a paper by Sherard Osburn on the sea bed, & he exhibited some very good diagrams & sections. He did not take up the subject in a scientific view, but as a hydrographer, & in connection with cable laying &c. Ketchy & Jeffries had a little to say afterwards, about the difference of sea & land surfaces &c.

Dr Bishy gave me Barrandis address, & I have forwarded your Letter to him. ^{George De Witt} The address

Prag.

Sir R. Munschison has been very ill since last week, with I, believe a shock of Paralysis, he was hardly expected to recover at first, but now seems to be doing better.

By reports this morning however he seems to be again rather worse & if this is the case I should think it hardly likely, that he will get over the attack.

Believe me your affectionate son
