Coahoma July 26th /91

Dearst William

Last night's mail brought me your first letter from Charlotte Town. I am very glad to hear you are feeling as thoroughly well in health. I trust this great blessing may be granted throughout your present absence. I do trust you received my telegram about George's success the first Sunday after your arrival in Charlotte Town. I trust your "proof" of "Lions' Hour" article with other letters will reach here next Sunday when you again return there. Believe that God may be so fortunate as to have fallen upon the ship that mails leave the Island for England that God may not be worried by untoward delay. Nothing of any importance has since been received for God. Mr. Series is expected here tomorrow & if opportunity presents I suppose it will be all right to show him the Testimonials of Mr. Armstrong. If Mr. Cash wife & family have arrived. Anna T. Stetson & I saw Mrs. Mc C. & one of their daughters.

We were disappointed at their not coming to our meeting this morn. but we are invited to the Campbells this ev. to meet them. I have been talking of the possibility of asking them to our Cottage. but feel unequal to this audacity until supported by God. When God returns however I must have a record of such audacities.

I am rather at a loss how to direct a letter to you now. I suppose Pictou will be the safest. as friends there are likely to know your whereabouts.

Having received a letter from George for you I am anxious to forward it. One to Anne contains more particulars of his success so that she not object I will also enclose it. He like his papa writes so quietly that I wd like to shake him into a little enthusiasm about himself. I hap. dec. old Mr Bigsby will write us a nice letter full of honest congratulations. I do so awfully wish to speak of George but beyond Anne nobody cares & I certainly will not bore them. Time passes quietly but far from unpleasantly for me.
Mrs & Lum & I are reading your Geological papers together. We have got through four numbers. With unabated interest & no little intelligent appreciation of the subject! I have promised to lend the numbers as we finish them to Mr. W. Cook

J. W. Cook. Miss L. as usual acting "hellman". As I have to prepare for going out to sea. I enclose this in ^{lengthy} note to Mr. Primrose.
I must conclude. The uncertainty of your ever receiving it rather damps ones ardor in writing.
I hope however you may receive it with my love & all good wishes for yourself & all other good & virtuous & Christian friends.

Believe me

Your ever loving wife

Margaret A. G. Spencer
