Dear Papa

I have been reading the book on King sent by Dr Harrington last week, & like it very much.
There are a lot of machines &c described which I have not been able to find elsewhere. It is amusing however to observe how much he has borrowed.
His account of Safety Camps for instance is borrowed nearly verbatim from the descriptive Catalogue of the Museum here - & not acknowledged -

I have just been counting up to send you the desired statement of Money I find I have now altogether just £42. The Second £50 the Duke of Cornwall's Scholarship I believe depends in some way on the exams of this session; though I don't nearly know to what extent.

the present will not!

The letters for this week have not yet arrived - I shall be glad to hear of your expectations for your expectations for the year.

It is a very interesting to observe how much has been done
