Dear Father,

Thanks for your
note recd. this morning.
If you would like we'll look through Heer's papers for any additional ~~papers~~ mentions on Jeremiah or Crt. And by the way, I will do so. Probably, however, you know what they contain.
I love you with respect Your Barlow, Admired to do before, but scarcely about it with while giving it to him. Barlow is only one of about a dozen temporary employees who are there at end of month owing to lack of money to pay them. His leaving is very inconvenient to us as he is working at my camp. Most of these temporary men will be taken on again when the field parties go out, so that it will well amount only to turning a month or so. One or two of them

However, may be dropped altogether, & it is quite possible that Barlow may be of this number. He is so exceedingly slow that he is more of a burden than a help, though a good enough draftsman. If a wonderfully quick man had had my work to do it would have been done long ago & I should not be stuck as I

now am at the end of the winter.

You might however, let me know whether you think it convenient while I put your note to Dr S. under the circumstances

Yours

George
