My dear Letter,

I had a sort of intention of going to Montreal today, but as I wish to be able to try on my new clothes at the tailors, which are probably not yet ready, have decided to put off my visit till some day next week, & write tonight a part of tomorrow in work here, which is, as usual,

Scandal behind. Look by the way paper that reasonable charges are being made in the Journals of the C.P.R. in Montreal Office & hope that you get the well injuriously affect William.
 In certain news about amounts in power as yet.

Yours
 George
