Dear Father,

Thanks for your kind
note which you wrote on the first Sunday we were here. We are getting on very well & comfortably;
but Florence is not in a hurry to get everything finished finally. The dining room & kitchen are in running order; and there are sufficient beds to sleep in, which is enough to get on with.
We are looking forward

to having you with us towards the end of the month. Meanwhile
I expect to go down to Fatter Point for a few days; probably next week. I may drop in upon you on the way, but do not know
my hours yet.

Serge called to see us on Sunday. He is very well.

Your affectionate Son, William —

Stordheim called today and was very ~~the~~ ^a prophetic and will put an extra polish on the piano
to make up. It is a miracle it was not
damaged.
