My dear Foster,

Yours of the 10th received today. I suppose we must follow medical advice & I can see obvious difficulties in the matter of the west for Eric, but confess to being prejudiced in favour of it on general principles.
I cannot say that I at all agree with your idea of remaining in Montreal during the summer for any purpose.

Rankine's arguments are much too indefinite to be taken into consideration & it would never do for either you or Mother to remain in Montreal during the hot weather which seems now to be setting in. Heat may be a little anxious & raw yet, but I feel that it will be an advantage to you to migrate there as soon as may be convenient & perhaps to look forward to returning to Montreal

Somewhat earlier than usual in the autumn.

I suppose that Mother does not seriously contemplate a journey to Sauff this Summer, but if she could entertain its idea I should be very glad to take charge of her & see her safely out there. I shall probably start some day early next week though I have not yet decided

No exact time.

Yesterday I sent you two of my Savings bank books & trust that you may have received them safely. There is no hurry about returning them to me, as they will be quite as safe in your hands as in mine.

I have received my Montreal Savings bank book back, properly made up today.

Yours

George
