Dear Sir William -

I do not receive any Home Section papers regularly now; but on getting a package of pictures this today, I see a happy little note concerning you. I take great pleasure in offering Lady Dawson and herself my kindest regards, and my warmest congratulations, in connection with the milestone of your journey through life together which you passed but a few days ago - with the desire that you both may be spared to spend many more anniversaries of the same happy sort.

I am getting along nicely in my professional walk over here; and am still employed by the State Government of Massachusetts on the great hydraulic works they are now constructing for Greater Boston.

I still have the desire to be back in the land of my birth; but firmly believe that the advantages offered for my over here in my own particular line of business, are greater than they are in Canada at the present day.

'Oed Me fien' is well represented in these parts; and I am proud to say that her graduates are beginning to show their way in the varied of professional work which she Gifts from you.

I have not heard from Mrs Scott, and at present - she is quite well - though she has been unwell most of the past winter.

My own family have had a deal of sickness of late Specially my good Mother; but I am glad to say that they are all now much better. I have had hopes of having a letter from you for some time past but I have not had time to send it to Lady Dawson and myself - I have been waiting for the letter from you to arrive during my days in Montreal.

I am feeling very unwell and hope you are well. I am yours truly
