My dear Father,

I reached here
safely & comfortably today, having had the parlour
car almost entirely to myself all the way.

Please don't omit to let me do anything I can on that paper of yours when you get it.

All the minor corrections
I think I can easily

Waste of only the bones of the subject are there.

I have managed to clear off some letters this afternoon & am going to try to find William this evening & give him the latest news of your progress.

With love to Mother

Yours
George
